STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, by providing a written notice of cancellation to the Director of Marin School of Massage and the Healing Arts by any of the following means: (i) in person to the Director, (ii) email to info@marinschoolofmassage.com, or (iii) certified mail to our mailing address.

REFUND POLICY

The student has the right to a refund of all charges paid, less the non-refundable registration fee of $100.00, if the student cancels the enrollment agreement by attending the first class session or by the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A refund of all charges includes any charges paid to MSMHA for used or opened equipment, textbooks, or materials. After the cancellation period, the student has the right to withdraw from the program at any time. If a student withdraws after the cancellation period and has completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance, the institution shall issue a pro rata refund of unearned institutional charges pursuant to California Education Code section 94920(d) and 5 CCR section 71751(a)(3)(A). The non-refundable registration fee is identified as a non-refundable charge in the enrollment agreement.

The amount of the refund owed to the student equals the total charges paid by the student, minus the daily or hourly tuition charge for the program (total institutional charge minus any non-refundable charges, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days or hours the student attended prior to withdrawal, and minus any non-refundable charges.

If the student has completed more than 60 percent of the period of attendance, the institution has earned 100 percent of the institutional charges and no refund is due.

For purposes of determining the refund, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn on the earliest of: (1) the date the student notifies the institution of withdrawal; (2) the date the institution terminates the student's enrollment due to failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress, failure to abide by the institution's rules, or failure to meet financial obligations; or (3) the last date of recorded attendance, if the student ceases to attend classes without an approved leave of absence.

Refunds shall be paid within 45 days of the student's date of cancellation or withdrawal.

For a stand-alone course, the period of attendance is that course, and any refund is calculated on that course’s tuition and hours.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, by providing a written notice of cancellation to the Director of Marin School of Massage and the Healing Arts by any of the following means: (i) in person to the Director, (ii) email to info@marinschoolofmassage.com, or (iii) certified mail to our mailing address.

REFUND POLICY

The student has the right to a refund of all charges paid, less the non-refundable registration fee of $100.00, if the student cancels the enrollment agreement by attending the first class session or by the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A refund of all charges includes any charges paid to MSMHA for used or opened equipment, textbooks, or materials. After the cancellation period, the student has the right to withdraw from the program at any time. If a student withdraws after the cancellation period and has completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance, the institution shall issue a pro rata refund of unearned institutional charges pursuant to California Education Code section 94920(d) and 5 CCR section 71751(a)(3)(A). The non-refundable registration fee is identified as a non-refundable charge in the enrollment agreement.

The amount of the refund owed to the student equals the total charges paid by the student, minus the daily or hourly tuition charge for the program (total institutional charge minus any non-refundable charges, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days or hours the student attended prior to withdrawal, and minus any non-refundable charges.

If the student has completed more than 60 percent of the period of attendance, the institution has earned 100 percent of the institutional charges and no refund is due.

For purposes of determining the refund, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn on the earliest of: (1) the date the student notifies the institution of withdrawal; (2) the date the institution terminates the student's enrollment due to failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress, failure to abide by the institution's rules, or failure to meet financial obligations; or (3) the last date of recorded attendance, if the student ceases to attend classes without an approved leave of absence.

Refunds shall be paid within 45 days of the student's date of cancellation or withdrawal.

For a stand-alone course, the period of attendance is that course, and any refund is calculated on that course’s tuition and hours.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, by providing a written notice of cancellation to the Director of Marin School of Massage and the Healing Arts by any of the following means: (i) in person to the Director, (ii) email to info@marinschoolofmassage.com, or (iii) certified mail to our mailing address.

REFUND POLICY

The student has the right to a refund of all charges paid, less the non-refundable registration fee of $100.00, if the student cancels the enrollment agreement by attending the first class session or by the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A refund of all charges includes any charges paid to MSMHA for used or opened equipment, textbooks, or materials. After the cancellation period, the student has the right to withdraw from the program at any time. If a student withdraws after the cancellation period and has completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance, the institution shall issue a pro rata refund of unearned institutional charges pursuant to California Education Code section 94920(d) and 5 CCR section 71751(a)(3)(A). The non-refundable registration fee is identified as a non-refundable charge in the enrollment agreement.

The amount of the refund owed to the student equals the total charges paid by the student, minus the daily or hourly tuition charge for the program (total institutional charge minus any non-refundable charges, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days or hours the student attended prior to withdrawal, and minus any non-refundable charges.

If the student has completed more than 60 percent of the period of attendance, the institution has earned 100 percent of the institutional charges and no refund is due.

For purposes of determining the refund, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn on the earliest of: (1) the date the student notifies the institution of withdrawal; (2) the date the institution terminates the student's enrollment due to failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress, failure to abide by the institution's rules, or failure to meet financial obligations; or (3) the last date of recorded attendance, if the student ceases to attend classes without an approved leave of absence.

Refunds shall be paid within 45 days of the student's date of cancellation or withdrawal.

For a stand-alone course, the period of attendance is that course, and any refund is calculated on that course’s tuition and hours.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, by providing a written notice of cancellation to the Director of Marin School of Massage and the Healing Arts by any of the following means: (i) in person to the Director, (ii) email to info@marinschoolofmassage.com, or (iii) certified mail to our mailing address.

REFUND POLICY

The student has the right to a refund of all charges paid, less the non-refundable registration fee of $100.00, if the student cancels the enrollment agreement by attending the first class session or by the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A refund of all charges includes any charges paid to MSMHA for used or opened equipment, textbooks, or materials. After the cancellation period, the student has the right to withdraw from the program at any time. If a student withdraws after the cancellation period and has completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance, the institution shall issue a pro rata refund of unearned institutional charges pursuant to California Education Code section 94920(d) and 5 CCR section 71751(a)(3)(A). The non-refundable registration fee is identified as a non-refundable charge in the enrollment agreement.

The amount of the refund owed to the student equals the total charges paid by the student, minus the daily or hourly tuition charge for the program (total institutional charge minus any non-refundable charges, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days or hours the student attended prior to withdrawal, and minus any non-refundable charges.

If the student has completed more than 60 percent of the period of attendance, the institution has earned 100 percent of the institutional charges and no refund is due.

For purposes of determining the refund, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn on the earliest of: (1) the date the student notifies the institution of withdrawal; (2) the date the institution terminates the student's enrollment due to failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress, failure to abide by the institution's rules, or failure to meet financial obligations; or (3) the last date of recorded attendance, if the student ceases to attend classes without an approved leave of absence.

Refunds shall be paid within 45 days of the student's date of cancellation or withdrawal.

For a stand-alone course, the period of attendance is that course, and any refund is calculated on that course’s tuition and hours.

STUDENT'S RIGHT TO CANCEL

A student has the right to cancel the enrollment agreement and obtain a refund of charges paid through attendance at the first class session, or the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later, by providing a written notice of cancellation to the Director of Marin School of Massage and the Healing Arts by any of the following means: (i) in person to the Director, (ii) email to info@marinschoolofmassage.com, or (iii) certified mail to our mailing address.

REFUND POLICY

The student has the right to a refund of all charges paid, less the non-refundable registration fee of $100.00, if the student cancels the enrollment agreement by attending the first class session or by the seventh day after enrollment, whichever is later. A refund of all charges includes any charges paid to MSMHA for used or opened equipment, textbooks, or materials. After the cancellation period, the student has the right to withdraw from the program at any time. If a student withdraws after the cancellation period and has completed 60 percent or less of the period of attendance, the institution shall issue a pro rata refund of unearned institutional charges pursuant to California Education Code section 94920(d) and 5 CCR section 71751(a)(3)(A). The non-refundable registration fee is identified as a non-refundable charge in the enrollment agreement.

The amount of the refund owed to the student equals the total charges paid by the student, minus the daily or hourly tuition charge for the program (total institutional charge minus any non-refundable charges, divided by the number of days or hours in the program), multiplied by the number of days or hours the student attended prior to withdrawal, and minus any non-refundable charges.

If the student has completed more than 60 percent of the period of attendance, the institution has earned 100 percent of the institutional charges and no refund is due.

For purposes of determining the refund, the student shall be deemed to have withdrawn on the earliest of: (1) the date the student notifies the institution of withdrawal; (2) the date the institution terminates the student's enrollment due to failure to maintain satisfactory academic progress, failure to abide by the institution's rules, or failure to meet financial obligations; or (3) the last date of recorded attendance, if the student ceases to attend classes without an approved leave of absence.

Refunds shall be paid within 45 days of the student's date of cancellation or withdrawal.

For a stand-alone course, the period of attendance is that course, and any refund is calculated on that course’s tuition and hours.
